Dear Boris:

I guess that you were apprised of the fact that I was ill the early part of this year and for that reason I have heard nothing from you for some time. I am glad to say that I am very much better now and am back at work. This is just a short note to tell you so and to say that I hope to hear from you soon telling me what is going on.

Elizabeth and the children are well. She joins me in sending cordial greetings to you and Annie.

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
